

EMS Mask Guide

N95
Mask

Surgical
Mask

Cloth
Mask

When to Use

For patients with suspected COVID-19 and aerosol generating procedures being completed

For patients with suspected COVID-19 or for general use on every call if supplies allow. Should be applied to all patients who are transported.

For use with patients with NO signs or symptoms of COVID-19. Should be used if inventory does not allow for use of surgical mask

When to Re-Use

May be re-used as long as:

- Not visibly soiled
- Not been exposed to aerosol generating procedures
- Mask maintains integrity

May be re-used as long as:

- Not visibly soiled
- Not been exposed to aerosol generating procedures
- Mask maintains integrity
- Patient mask may not be reused

May be re-used as long as:

- Not visibly soiled
- Mask maintains integrity

How to Store and Clean

Stored in paper bag or hung. UV light may help disinfect the mask

Stored in paper bag or hung.

Surgical Mask should be fluid resistant

Stored in paper bag or hung. May be washed in washer and detergent